

CITY ITEMS.

Messrs. Henry Blackwell, Brady and Andrew Rice Ewing, Jr., left Nashville, Tuesday evening, Jan. 15, 1907, en route for Kansas City, Mo., where they remain for an indefinite stay. They will reach St. Louis Wednesday and remain over for a few hours.

Miss H. Louise Perkins is with the mailing department at the A. M. E. Publishing House.

Mrs. John Young is much better after a few days of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Streater, of Murrell street, entertained Miss Hadnott, of Tuskegee, and Dr. S. S. Caruthers, at dinner Thursday evening January 10.

Miss Matilda Jamison, who has been in the city visiting her parents on Jefferson street, returned to St. Louis Monday.

Mrs. Jane E. Napier, mother of Mr. J. C. Napier, who is now with her daughter in St. Louis, Mo., has been very ill for the past week and it was once thought she would not recover. Her children here were much agrieved, and Mr. and Mrs. Napier had already planned to go to her bedside, but they received word this week that she is now slowly improving.

Miss Viola Baker, who has been visiting relatives in Gallatin, has returned.

Mr. James Harlan, who is in the Pullman service, is visiting his family this week.

Mrs. Callie D. House, the National Secretary of the Ex-slave Movement, will leave for Lexington, Miss., and New Orleans, Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harlan are visiting their parents of Hendersonville, Tenn.

Miss S. Christine Perkins has returned from Chicago after a nine months' stay.

Mrs. Emma Laws, of 1915 Hermosa street, is convalescing after a brief illness.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McGavock, of 24 Wharf avenue, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lee, of West Nashville, Sunday.

Mr. Jesse Randolph, of Patterson street, who was quite ill last week, is able to be at his work.

Miss Martha C. Grisham, of Jackson street, has nearly recovered from the effects of a heavy cold.

Miss Mary L. Clark, of Jo Johnston avenue, is slightly indisposed.

Mr. Charles H. Burrill, secretary of the Globe Publishing Company, who has been suffering with neuralgia, has improved.

Mr. R. L. King, of Patterson street, is suffering with neuralgia of the face.

Mrs. Fannie McGee, of Decatur, Ala., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jane Davis, of Bass street, and other friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles James, of 193 Fillmore street, gave a dinner in honor of their guests Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe. Those present were Mrs. Julia Danny and family and Mr. and Mrs. Mary Cole.

Rev. E. J. Gregg, Secretary of Christian Endeavor League of Jacksonville, Fla., will speak at St. Paul Sunday morning.

Miss Drusilla Hill, of Division street, is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Millie Hale is improving slowly.

Mrs. Ellen Ratcliffe is suffering with asthma.

Miss Mittle Halfacre, of Franklin, Tenn., spent Saturday and Sunday in the city.

Rev. E. P. Ellis and Miss Viola Tedford Glascoe were united in wedlock at the home of the bride's sister, Wednesday night, January 16, with Rev. C. H. Boone officiating.

Dr. W. D. Chappelle left the city Wednesday morning to attend the Bishop's Council, which convened in Kansas City, January 17.

Dr. W. H. Heard, of Atlanta, Ga., preached a wonderful sermon at St. Paul A. M. E. Church last Sunday morning.

Mr. Henry A. Boyd, who has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism, which somewhat retarded his locomotion, has almost entirely recovered.

Mr. A. T. Landers, of the Baptist Publishing House, was slightly indisposed a few days last week.

Rev. Preston Taylor is out of the city for two weeks recuperating in Florida. Hard work and a big business forced Dr. Taylor to take this much needed rest.

Mr. S. P. Toney, of 1700 Patterson street, who has been confined to his bed since the holidays, is improving rapidly.

Miss Minnie Toney, of Patterson street, will return to school at Normal, Ala., the first of next month.

Rev. E. W. D. Isaac, D. D., arrived Sunday, after having spent about three weeks on a lecture tour in the state of Alabama.

Mrs. Josie Henderson, of Twelfth avenue, North, is much better.

Mrs. Walter Hadley, of Sixteenth avenue, North, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mrs. Jennie Nelson, of Webster street, is again quite sick.

Miss Carrie Bailey, of Chicago, spent the Christmas in the city visiting her grandmother.

Mr. Allen Johnson, one of the oldest members of the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, died last week.

All of the services of the First Baptist Church, East Nashville, Sunday, were largely attended.

The People's Mutual Benefit Association, on the East Side, of which Mr. J. Baker is President, and Mr. B. G. Bryant, Secretary, had their annual banquet last Wednesday night at the First Baptist Church, East Nashville. They rendered an excellent program. Refreshments were served. A large number joined the Association.

Mr. Earnest Cole was substitute letter carrier on route No. 9 Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The real estate market seems to be on the boom among the Negro population of Nashville. Quite a number of transfers were recorded this week in which they acquired homesteads.

Mr. Wyman Brady is the collector for the Globe. He will call soon.

Mrs. Garfield Morton, of 5 Marshall street, who has been seriously ill, is able to be up.

Mr. Garfield Holbert, of 1027 Thirteenth avenue, South, is much improved but still confined to his room.

Deacon O. W. Stokes is very much indisposed at this writing.

The many friends of Mr. Stephen Wims, of Ament street, mourn his untimely death.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Campbell, of 1031 Ament street, spent several days in Columbia at the family reunion and returned home Monday accompanied by Mr. Joseph Campbell, who spent several days in the city.

Mrs. Susan Lowe, Principal of the Tennessee School for the Blind, and Misses M. M. Hunter and Lizzie Wells, two of the teachers, are now preparing the pupils for a drill and exhibition to be rendered when the members of the General Assembly make their annual visit.

For fear your friends in other cities, who have lived in Nashville, do not know what is going on, send them a copy of the Globe.

Miss John D. Thompson is visiting relatives in Birmingham, Ala., where she is expected to remain for two weeks.

The Senior "Meds" at Meharry will have to face about two examinations per week for the next two months.

Miss Bessie L. Martin has been at Wilson's Drug Store, South Nashville, for a month assisting during the holiday rush, is home again at 524 Third avenue, North.

Mrs. W. A. Plummer and little daughter, of Cairo, Ill., sister of Misses Emma and J. DeWitt Shorter are visiting her mother at 1803 Church street. They will remain a week or ten days as Mrs. Shorter's health is not so good.

News has reached Nashville that Mr. E. D. Sielski, a prominent citizen of San Antonio, Texas, met with a serious accident. On going home one night last week, he found a burglar in his house and in an attempt to capture him was shot in the mouth by the thief, the bullet lodging in his throat.

Dr. R. F. Boyd visited Memphis, Tenn., this week. It is said that he went to the city on the bluff to perform a difficult operation, having been called by some of the young physicians who had finished at Meharry. The nature of the operation has not been learned, but it is believed that it was a major one in which surgical skill was needed as well as experience in the practice of medicine.

Word reached Nashville that Miss Hester O. Brown made quite an impression at Decatur, Ala., and at the A. & M. College, Normal, where she is spending the week.

It is learned that on the country road, just six miles out from Nashville, colored women are forced to work with rock, many of them crushing rock and carrying it as the men.

Mrs. Ella B. McEmore, of Pelham Manor, New York, is in the city for an indefinite time. While here she will be the guest of Mrs. Philip Douglass, of 1306 Jackson street.

Miss Henri M. Campbell, of the National B. Y. P. U. office force, who has been ill for several days, is able to be at her desk again.

Mrs. M. M. Thorne, of Tremont avenue, is ill.

Miss Willie E. Battle continues to improve from her recent illness.

Miss Ada L. Harris, of Fourth avenue, South, who has been quite ill for the past two weeks, is able to be out.

Mrs. Dr. J. T. Wilson is back from Atlanta, Ga., where she has been for some time at the bedside of a very sick mother, who was left convalescing by the doctor.

A JOLLY TIME.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. I. Henderson entertained a number of their friends Friday evening, January 4, in honor of their sister, Mrs. Blanche Henderson, of Chicago, Ill. Games and music were the principal features of the evening. The guests remembered the host and hostess with cheering toasts during the time of the repast. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bently, Misses Virginia Broughton, Sadie Winston, Hattie Watkins and Mollie Hadley, Messrs. A. R. Stump, Searcy, R. Johnson, Cockrill and S. L. Carter.

REV. BECKHAM TO LEAVE.

Rev. Wm. Beckham is planning to leave the city soon. He has been home since early part of December, having undergone a successful operation. He is now able to get out and will spend possibly two or three months on the road before returning to Nashville. A very long itinerary of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe, is being arranged as follows:

Jan. 23, 24, 25, Bowling Green, Ky.; Jan. 27, Memphis, Tenn.; Jan. 29, 30, Cairo, Ill.; Jan. 31, Feb. 1, Louisville, Ky.; Feb. 2, 3, Cincinnati, O.; Feb. 4, Indianapolis, Ind.; Feb. 5, Franklin, Ind.; Feb. 7 and 8, Chicago, Ill.; Feb. 9 and 12, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Feb. 13, Dayton, O.; Feb. 14, Springfield, O.; Feb. 15 to 19, Columbus, O.; Feb. 20 to 22, Pittsburg, Pa.; Feb. 23 to 24, Wheeling, W. Va.; Feb. 25 to 26, Washington, D. C. The new dates will be made some time in next week.

GOODLETTSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. Giles Davis, formerly pastor of Baker's Chapel C. M. E. Church, preached here last Tuesday night to a large and appreciative audience.

Prof. G. W. Hynes made two exhibitions of his fine scene plays here last week.

Mrs. Emma Dozier spent last Sunday at Edgely Junction.

Miss Anna L. Hendricks is spending this week at Ridgetop.

Mrs. Litha Grizzard visited Nashville this week.

Mr. Thomas Jones, of Nashville, visited Mr. Charles Finch last week. Mr. Finch was sick for several weeks, but he is well again.

Miss Rosa B. Hendricks is an important factor in the Congregational Sunday school.

Mrs. Willie Finch recently presented Rev. J. C. Russell with a box of fine linen paper and envelopes.

Rev. R. C. McLendon has matriculated at the Walden Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Kate Utley declares that the Globe is indispensable to real race growth.

Mr. Ernest Baker, who is temporarily residing in Nashville, visited relatives and friends last Sunday.

Mr. G. W. Haynes will preach at the Congregational Church next Sunday.

Miss Kittie Garrett begins the New Year by renewing her subscription for the Globe.

Mr. J. J. Green, a student of the college department of Fisk University, will visit here next Sunday and render assistance in religious services.

Mr. J. M. Payne takes advantage of every opportunity to widen the circulation of the Globe, and the fruits of his effort are seen in the new interest and race pride which this community has received within the past few months.

Messrs. Nicholas Matthews and Will Patton renewed their subscriptions for the Globe last week.

BRENTWOOD NOTES.

Miss Idabelle Phillips, of Cane Springs, Ky., visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Phillips, last week.

Rev. S. M. Utley, of the West Nashville District held his Second Quarterly Conference at Brook's Chapel M. E. Church, Saturday night, January 12. The meeting was very interesting and the largest attended quarterly conference in this church for many years. Rev. Utley is a man of great ability and presides with such cool deliberation, which has won for him the confidence and respect of his congregation. Rev. Utley states that Brook's Chapel is ahead of all the other churches in his District in paying the pastor and other church expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bills, after an illness of about two months were both able to attend church last Sunday and take communion.

Rev. James Fennell, of Brook's Chapel, M. E. Church, is taking a course in theology at Walden University, Nashville.

Mr. Rice Ewing, of Nashville, spent last Monday in Brentwood, visiting the family of Mr. Roden Perkins and left last evening for St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Laura Spratt is quite sick at her home on the Granny White Pike.

Mr. John Armstrong lost a very fine mare last week, she was only sick a few hours.

Messrs. Bell Leek and R. Harper have the contract for widening the railroad track in Dr. Oden's cut. The nice weather has allowed them to make good head-way with their work.

Preston Taylor.

Telephone 896.

TAYLOR & CO.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

CARRIAGES FOR HIRE.

449 North Avenue, North.

Nashville, - - Tenn.

Mr. William D. Vernon went to Tuskegee a few days ago to enter that institution, when they examined him they found he was too far advanced for their grades, so one of the teachers wrote his father, Mr. Samuel Vernon.

BOX ENTERTAINMENT.

The Box Entertainment at Jackson Temple C. M. E. Church last Monday night, was a grand affair and a brilliant success. The ladies were there with their boxes handsomely decorated on the outside and deliciously filled on the inside. A handsome willow rocker was the prize given to the Sunday school by Mr. D. A. Dortch, the Broadway merchant, and was awarded to Miss Cornelia Price, of Eleventh avenue, North, she having the most prettily decorated box. The prizes for the little folks were captured by Misses Daisy Thomas and Ruth Upshaw, they having brought in the largest amounts in their kegs. The Sunday school wishes to thank all who assisted them in this entertainment.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

At Friendship Lodge, No 72, K. of P., Monday night, Deputy Grand Chancellor for the middle district of Tennessee, A. W. Fite, installed the following officers for the first semi-annual term of 1907: C. C., Dr. Julius A. McMillan; V. C., W. R. Martin; M. of W., D. Wesley Crutcher; M. of F., Rufus Martin; M. of Ex., Dr. R. S. White; K. of R. and S., T. Clay Moore; I. G., Wm. Ferguson; O. G., John Lowery; M. at A., William Peters; Trustees, Russell Howard, D. Wesley Crutcher, T. Clay Moore. The lodge has enjoyed unbounded prosperity since its institution and under the newly elected officers it expects to go forward with the work.

SUNDAY AT THE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday, January 20, will be an important day at the Second Baptist Church, corner Stevens and Deluge streets, South Nashville, of which Rev. G. B. Taylor is pastor. This church will have a big rally the entire day. The purpose of the rally is to raise money to cancel the indebtedness on the church and furniture. They have recently installed a very handsome quarter-sawn oak pulpit, three beautiful gothic top, plain leather upholstered pulpit chairs, one marble top communion table and an entire set of the latest quarter-sawn oak church pews. These pews are possibly the newest in Nashville. The seat is curved bottom and back, straight seating, affording a comfortable, clean and up-to-date church pew. All of this furniture was secured from the Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board, and Rev. Taylor is loud in his praises of the satisfaction given. A very unique program has been arranged for Sunday. Rev. R. H. Boyd will speak in the afternoon and Dr. E. W. D. Isaac at night. Other ministers have been invited to participate. Mr. Henry A. Boyd has been invited to act as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion. It is expected that South Nashville will turn out in full, as this new furniture is quite an addition to the church.

MARRIAGE RECEPTION.

The marriage reception of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Voorhies was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. DeWees, of Ament street, Monday evening. The large number of friends of the happy pair who were present joined in the festivities of the occasion. The newly wedded pair was the recipient of a large number of presents. Those present were Messdames Richard Merrill, Wm. James, Wm. Perkins, A. B. Brown, Bettie Anderson, Nellie Williams, Lizzie Barnes, Susie Perkins, Misses Vannoy C. Webster, Mary Whittaker, Evelina Barnes, Eleanor Battle, Carrie Ewing, Susie L. Dodson, Carrie Walker, Velma Moseley, Amanda Edmonson, J. DeWitt Shorter, Lottie Harris, Beulah Perkins, Bruce Mal Ewing, Bessie Garrett, Virginia Whittaker, Clara Frierson, Fannie Watkins, Eloise Frierson, Emma James, Estella Bright, Leola Bright, Lillie Bright, Matilda L. Hargraves, Maggie Hargraves, Lizzie Stockell, Mai Liza Stockell, Lottie Harris, Annie M. Rucker, Messrs. Orlando J. Voorhies, J. L. G. Voorhies, Thos. Webster, S. Voorhies, Thomas Webster, Shadrack

BOYD & BATTLE,

First-Class Horses and Buggies To Let

Our Baggage Wagon will call for and deliver your parcels.

Short Wood and Coal Orders promptly delivered.

Horses Bought and Sold.

PHONE MAIN 4460-Y.

900 Joe Johnston Ave., Nashville, Tenn.
7-20-06 tf

BUY YOUR SHOES.

OF
BOB ROBERTSON.

PHONE 3223-L

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH

Cline & Gordon.

410 Union Street. Phone 1265.

The Best Variety and the Most Reliable Shoes Made.

BUY YOUR

Clothing, Hats, Etc.,

OF

BOB ROBERTSON,

PHONE 3223-L.

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH

Varley & Bauman.

325 Union St. Phone 560.

The Best Variety and the Most Reliable Place in the City.

BUY YOUR

Dry Goods, Notions, Cloaks, Etc.,

OF

Bob Robertson.

PHONE 3223-L.

RESIDENCE: 618 WEBSTER STREET.

WITH

The Castner-Knott Dry Goods Co.

209 Fifth Ave., N. Phone 620.

The Largest and Best Stock to Select from in the City.

To the Madam of the House:

ANY TIME YOU

Need Servants

Call Main 2160

Hunt's Employment Office.

Joiner, James E. Hurt, E. Foster, J. W. Franklin, F. M. Rhodes, G. H. Reid, E. M. McIntosh, Wm. Perkins, Hugo Stokes, E. J. Frierson, George O. Darden, L. O. Walker, Sam Huston, Leon Hurt, Scovel Richardson, George Upshaw, Ed. Frierson, James L. Hunter, Jr., J. O. Battle, Allen Whittaker, Sam Tenner, Andrew Hudson, Milton Darden, Joe Webster, Sr., Joe Webster, Jr., Lewis Walker, Charlie Walker, H. B. Stokes, Marshall Reynolds, Richard Perkins and Thos. J. Webster.

PRINCE HERRMAN.

very stream of joy and pleasure upon which silvery water rocked in the ship of sweetest contentedness you may ride to the beautiful island of delightfulness and here resting upon flowery beds of satisfaction, feast on the luscious fruit of happiness as one by one diamonds of talent sparkle on the beach of action.

Such are Prince Herrman's entertainments. Crowded houses continue to greet them. Next week they receive at First Baptist Church, East Nashville, Monday and Wednesday nights, Jan. 21 and 23; Mount Zion Baptist Church, Tuesday and Thursday nights, Jan. 22 and 24; Payne Chapel A. M. E. Church, Friday night, Jan. 25.